

Corona crisis: Temporary bridging scheme for independent entrepreneurs (Tozo) – Drenthe

Are you an independent entrepreneur and do you fall below the social minimum due to the corona crisis? Then you can use the Temporary bridging scheme for independent entrepreneurs. (Tozo).

With this scheme, self-employed entrepreneurs can supplement their income over the next three months to € 1050 per month (single person) and for married couples and cohabiting persons, up to € 1500 per month. This income supplement is a gift and does not have to be refunded.

In addition to the income supplement, the scheme offers the option of a working capital loan of up to € 10,157.00. This is an interest-bearing loan that must be repaid.

A number of conditions apply to make use of the scheme. For example, your company must be registered with the Chamber of Commerce before the start of the crisis and you must work at least 24 hours a week within your company. ### How do I submit an application?

You can request support in the form of an additional payment for living expenses and / or for working capital. The scheme is implemented by municipalities. This concerns the municipality where you live, and not the municipality where your company is located.
